("GCRC") or, with respect to any U.S. route, American Rocky Mountaineer LLC ("ARM"), and constitute an agreement between you and GCRC and ARM. This Agreement shall be applicable to Great Canadian Railtour Company (U.S.) Ltd.; Great Canadian Railtour Company Ltd.; GCRC (Aus) Pty Ltd. and Great Canadian Railtour Company (U.K.) Ltd. You agree and understand that if you travel on an itinerary on board the Rocky Mountaineer, you are deemed to have read, understood, and expressly accepted the terms of this Agreement, and this Agreement shall govern your rights and responsibilities with respect to your itinerary. Your itinerary refers to all service and travel components (such as rail, packages, tours, hotels, cruises, attractions, meals, and activities) booked via GCRC by you or by a third-party on your behalf in connection with your itinerary (all of which are collectively referred to as your "Itinerary").

References to "us", "we" and "our" refers to GCRC and ARM.

This Agreement may be amended by us from time to time without notice and you agree to be bound by any such amendments.

GCRC has taken reasonable care to ensure that the information included in this Agreement, and on its website <https://www.rockymountaineer.com/> and all associated sub-pages (the Website) is accurate and complete. Please note, however, that GCRC does not warrant or guarantee the accuracy or completeness of the information provided on the Website. The information on the Website may be changed or updated without notice. In the event of any inconsistency between this Agreement and any applicable third-party conditions and/or international conventions, this Agreement shall, to the extent permitted by law, prevail.

1. Passports & Visas

It is your sole responsibility to obtain and have available, when necessary, the appropriate valid ID and travel documents. All guests are advised to check with their travel agent or appropriate government authority to determine the necessary documents. GCRC and ARM, along with airline and cruise ship operators, reserve the right to refuse boarding without adequate ID. GCRC and ARM are not responsible for guests refused entry into Canada or the United States because of inadequate documentation. If you are travelling with children, you must ensure proper documentation is obtained for entry. For greater clarity, we accept no responsibility if you cannot travel or incur any loss or expense arising out of your failure or inability to comply with any applicable passport, visa, or immigration requirements. You agree to reimburse GCRC and ARM on demand in relation to any fines or other losses which we may incur as a result of your failure to comply with any passport, visa or immigration requirements.

2. Luggage

Guests travelling onboard the Rocky Mountaineer are limited to two checked pieces of luggage per person.

Total checked luggage weight per person shall not exceed 30 kg (66 lb.). Each piece of luggage must have an identification tag attached to it that includes the guest's name, return address, and telephone number. Additional and oversized items, such as sports equipment, may be subject to a surcharge.

All guests' luggage will be delivered to their accommodations at the mid-point hotel(s) of their rail journey. All guests travelling onboard the Rocky Mountaineer should carry any valuables, medications, or other important belongings with them onboard the train.

Guests are prohibited from carrying weapons, firearms, ammunition, incendiary devices, explosive, flammable, hazardous, illegal, or radioactive materials or other potentially dangerous items. GCRC and ARM personnel have the right to search any guest's luggage or personal effects for any such items and in their sole discretion may confiscate, store, destroy, or surrender to an appropriate authority any item that they reasonably consider is or may become dangerous, and to refuse boarding, or to remove, any passenger who declines to cooperate in such a search or to surrender such an item.

All guest personal property, including but not limited to, money, jewelry, negotiable papers, cameras, video and electrical equipment, electronic devices, computers and accessories, cellular telephones, medical equipment, sporting goods, wheelchairs, personal mobility devices, walkers, and strollers is checked at the owner's risk. GCRC and ARM are not responsible for any loss or damage caused to or by such property and any such loss or damage is subject to the Maximum Liability Policy as described below.

Maximum Liability Policy: GCRC and ARM's combined maximum liability for loss or damage to personal checked baggage and specialty items is limited to a maximum of $500 CAD or $500 USD per piece of checked luggage, dependent upon the country of travel. Neither GCRC nor ARM will cover any replacement cost of misdirected or damaged luggage and contents. Liability is restricted to personal luggage consisting of wearing apparel, toilet articles or similar effects for personal use and comfort, as well as articles other than personal luggage, which may be checked and handled in accordance with the luggage policy set forth in this Agreement. Liability does not apply to carry-on luggage, items transported for or belonging to other persons, or items intended for sale. GCRC and ARM are not liable for damage resulting from over-packing or non-structural damage considered normal wear and tear, such as scratches, scuffs, nicks, missing pull straps, zipper damage, damage to wheels, manufacturers' defects, soils, stains, or spillage. Please contact a GCRC representative if you have any questions about the materials you intend to transport.

Other Suppliers: Certain Itineraries have baggage restrictions due to either accommodation style or transportation requirements. Please refer to your Itinerary documents for full details. Your baggage must be in compliance with any requirements of any third-party suppliers as set out in your Itinerary documents.

3. Travel Documents

You must be in possession of valid travel documents before boarding the train. Travel documents are only valid for the dates and for use only between the points of departure and destination. Travel documents are not transferable, other than as expressly permitted under this Agreement. Travel documents bearing unauthorized alterations are not valid for travel. Travel documents remain our property and if you fail in any material respect to comply with any applicable condition, including but not limited to this Agreement, governing their use, your travel documents may be withdrawn or invalidated by our staff or agents. There will be an administration charge for replacing any lost or damaged travel documents.

To receive your travel documents prior to departure, final payment must be received by GCRC 60 days prior to departure. Your travel documents will be made available to you at least 30 days prior to departure. If a booking is made within 30 days of departure, travel documents will be sent electronically. Guests will be advised of their mid-point hotel(s) accommodation upon check-in.

4. Connecting Travel

Please arrive at designated Rocky Mountaineer departure point as indicated in your travel documents a minimum of 30 minutes prior to boarding time to ensure your luggage is checked and your travel documents are in order. We strongly recommend that you do not make onward travel arrangements for the night of arrival at your destination. Train travel is subject to unforeseen delays, and departure and arrival times cannot be guaranteed. GCRC and ARM are not responsible for missed connections.

5. Photographs and Recordings

You agree that you will utilize any photographs, video, film, or other visual or audio recordings made during their journey solely for personal, non-commercial purposes. You hereby grant to GCRC an irrevocable, perpetual worldwide licence, to utilize any visual or audio recordings of or including the portrayal or likeness of you that is made by or on behalf of GCRC for any purpose, including the advertising or promotion of the services of GCRC and its affiliates, without payment of compensation, and any such portrayal or likeness will be the exclusive property of GCRC.

6. Guest Responsibilities

When you book your Itinerary, please ensure that all of the information provided by you such as names, dates of travel, and passport numbers is fully accurate. GCRC and ARM will not be held liable for any loss or inconvenience suffered by you as a result of your provision of inaccurate information to GCRC.

You will be requested to provide the required information via the Guest Portal at <https://www.rockymountaineer.com/guest-portal> or through your travel provider.

TERMS & CONDITIONS: 2025 Travel Year

Updated December 1, 2023

Mobility and Medical Conditions. Guests who have medical condition(s) or mobility restrictions that may require accommodation during their journey must provide full details during the booking process to ensure their needs and requirements can, when possible, be met. Not all itineraries sold by GCRC are suitable for all guests. Our Vacation Consultants can advise of the suitability of itineraries depending on needs of individual guests. Failure to disclose requirements and other relevant information may result in an inability to deliver the services as booked and we will not be responsible for cancellation penalties, loss of services or any other losses, costs or expenses incurred as a result of a guest's failure to provide details of his or her needs and requirements. Guests who require assistance must be accompanied by another guest who is able to provide all the assistance required (our staff cannot provide such assistance). We reserve the right to refuse guests carriage if they are not accompanied by a guest able to provide the required assistance, and we will not be responsible for any associated losses, costs or expenses. Guests with mobility issues should refer to www.rockymountaineer.com for further details.

Behaviour. For your safety and security, guests are expected to comply with the directions of Rocky Mountaineer onboard hosts and management. All guests travelling with us are expected to conduct themselves in an orderly, civil and acceptable manner, and to not disrupt the enjoyment of other guests. In the rare event that Rocky Mountaineer onboard hosts or management determine that a guest's behaviour, health, or mental condition could be detrimental to the operation of the journey or to other guests or poses a risk to the safety and security of other guests or to the onboard team or is in violation of any applicable regulation or law, we reserve the right to detain those guests. Guests who are detained for such reasons will be responsible for their own transportation to the next stop on their journey and no refund or compensation will be offered, including without limitation for any missed components of their journey. In the event you are detained due to your behaviour, our liability to you will cease and we will have no further obligations to you. No refunds for lost accommodation or any other service will be made, and we will not pay any expenses or costs incurred by you as a result of such detaining. You will be held solely and exclusively responsible and will indemnify and hold harmless GCRC and ARM in respect of any damage or loss arising from your breach of this Agreement or any other specific rules, regulations or code of conduct applicable to your booking.

Animals. All pets or animals, excluding certified service dogs and properly documented support animals (collectively "Service Animals"), are prohibited from travelling onboard the Rocky Mountaineer. If you require a Service Animal to accompany you on your Itinerary, please submit a request to us in writing, at the time of booking, or a minimum of 30 days prior to travelling onboard the Rocky Mountaineer, and such request shall include evidence of the certification or necessity of such Service Animal.

7. Alcohol Consumption and Smoking

The onboard service and consumption of alcoholic beverages will be limited to guests of legal drinking age in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations of the jurisdiction in which the train operates. Guests are reminded to consume alcohol in moderation. The decision as to when to discontinue the onboard service of alcohol to any guest is at the sole discretion of GCRC, ARM, and their onboard personnel. Consumption of personal alcohol is not permitted onboard Rocky Mountaineer trains at any time. If, in the opinion of GCRC, ARM, or their personnel, you are considered to be intoxicated to the point of being a potential danger to yourself or others, or are in a state that is likely to detract from the other guests' enjoyment of the journey, you may be detained and the associated limitation of liability set out in Section 6 shall apply.

To ensure the preservation of the fragile environment of the areas in which we travel and for the comfort of all guests, there is a no smoking or vaping policy which includes a prohibition on the use of cigarettes, cannabis, cigars, and e-cigarettes onboard the Rocky Mountaineer, including in vestibules, restrooms, inside stations, on the platforms, or near the tracks. There is also no smoking in hotel rooms. We recommend that you prepare for the journey accordingly.

8. Possible Alterations

GCRC will make reasonable efforts to provide you with your booked tour arrangements, but occasional minor changes can not be ruled out. If we know of such changes sufficiently in advance, we will notify you directly. GCRC and ARM reserve the right to modify, alter, or substitute all or any part of its services when reasonably necessary or advisable. This may be necessitated due to factors beyond our control, including but not limited to, force majeure events, strikes, weather conditions, disruptions or diversions of rail services, floods, or earthquakes, as more particularly described in Section 11. If it becomes necessary to make such a change, GCRC and ARM agree to provide the best commercially reasonable alternative available. We will endeavour to adhere to the specifics set out in your Itinerary; however, circumstances may necessitate alterations, including accommodation changes. Accordingly, all fares, schedules, itineraries, hours of arrival and departure, air schedules, and special programs are subject to change without notice at any time. Under no circumstances shall GCRC or ARM be liable to you for any loss, cost, expenditure, damage or other compensation arising from any reasonably necessary modification, alteration, or substitution of services, subject only to the limited claims in respect of cancellation by GCRC set out in section 12 of this Agreement.

9. Supplier's Liabilities

GCRC acts as an agent for and makes arrangements with airlines, hotels, bus lines, and other third-party service providers (collectively, "Suppliers") to provide you with non-rail travel services and accommodations. Although great care is taken in choosing Suppliers, we are unable to directly control them and therefore you agree that we shall not be liable for any Supplier's acts or omissions. The travel services provided by the Suppliers may be subject to conditions imposed by such Suppliers, and their liability to you may be limited by their tariffs, conditions of carriage, international conventions, or other agreements.

10. Company Liability and Guest Indemnity

You assume all risks associated with or arising out of your Itinerary, and you waive and release all claims that you may have or acquire against GCRC and ARM and each of their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees, and agents (all of whom are collectively referred to as the "Releasees") arising from or related, directly or indirectly, to the Itinerary, including claims arising from the negligence of any Releasee, and including (without restriction) claims for or arising from personal injury, death, property damage, delay, inconvenience, advertising, misrepresentation, loss of revenue or profit, loss of enjoyment, upset, distress, or frustration, whether physical, mental, or otherwise, expenses, travel, or accommodation costs, claims for punitive damages, claims for unjust enrichment, profits, waiver of tort, non-monetary loss, injunctive relief, or any other form of remedy, subject only to the limited claims in respect of loss of luggage or cancellation by GCRC set out in sections 2 and 12 of this Agreement. You hereby indemnify, hold harmless and irrevocably and forever release and discharge the Releasees from any and all such liability.

GCRC will not be responsible for any injury, illness, death, loss, damage, expense, cost or other claim of any description whatsoever which results from (i) an act(s) and/or omissions of a third-party not connected with the provision of arrangements and which were unforeseeable or unavoidable; or (ii) any service or facility not arranged by GCRC as part of the Itinerary; or (iii) a "force majeure" event as defined in Section 11 of this Agreement.

It is expressly agreed and acknowledged as between GCRC, ARM and you that each party will perform their obligations under this Agreement and shall be held fully accountable for doing so.

Limitation of Liability

You agree that the maximum liability of GCRC and ARM, collectively, to you for any liability arising from your Itinerary shall not exceed twice the amount received by GCRC in respect of your Itinerary.

For UK Guests booking directly through GCRC (UK) Ltd. or via a UK Travel Agent only

The responsibility and obligations of the Parties with respect to indemnification, liability and any limitations on liability as contained herein shall be interpreted and applied in full accordance and compliance with the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018 ("PTR"). In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this agreement and the PTR, the PTR shall at all times govern and prevail.

11. Force Majeure

Neither GCRC nor ARM shall be considered or deemed to have defaulted under or breached in any way this Agreement, if GCRC's or ARM's performance is prevented or delayed by any act of God, flood, fire, earthquake, disaster, disease, epidemic, pandemic
